1. In accordance with your memorandum, dated 25 February 1957, the following information on [REDACTED] (for maps and indexes [REDACTED]) is furnished:

a. The approximate anticipated expenditure for Fiscal Year 1958 will be $6,000.

b. This increase in funds ($5,000) is necessitated by an NGS price increase on all its publications, which was effective 14 February 1957. The following are examples of price increases, which are charged to this office when 100 or more sheets are ordered:

- (1) Paper maps (small) from 25 cents to 35 cents.
- (2) Paper maps (large) from $1.40 to $2.10.
- (3) Fabric maps from $1.00 to $1.50.
- (4) Indexes from 25 cents to 50 cents.
